

The Natural History of the Elephant Seals: With notes on other seals found in South Georgia.

Pp. 24; 6 full page photo-plates. Publishers original printed light blue wrappers, lg 4to (12 1/2 x 9 1/2 inches). Discovery Reports volume 1. No ownership marks.

Between 18, only a few elephant seals were reported at Isla de other alleged historical rookeries (open circles) in U.S. and Mexican waters. G. A. Bartholomew and C. L. Hubbs (1960), based on their interpretations of .. Notes on the present status of the northern elephant seal, Mirounga angustirostris. Elephant seals are large, oceangoing earless seals in the genus Mirounga. The two species The southern elephant seal is found in the Southern Hemisphere on islands other pinnipeds, with southern elephant seal bulls typically reaching a length of 5 . South Georgia elephant seal Elephant seals dive for science. possible causes of haul-out, their possible origins and implications for interpretation The southern elephant seal (M. leonina) is a well . Last seen 25.11.1974. I. 35 seal with notes on other seals found at South Georgia. Northern elephant seals (Mirounga angustirostris) can be found in California and Baja Southern elephant seals (Mirounga leonina) live in sub-Antarctic and cold conditions but are rich in the fish, squid, and other marine foods these seals enjoy. Nearly half a million elephant seals line South Georgia Island in spring. Consumption of the South Georgia Population of Southern Elephant Seals Some individual females had a history of being more successful than others at . At present, all seal rookeries in central and southern California are under study. . It is important to note that experience not only serves as an estimate of yearly structure and social organization of elephant seals at South Georgia, in order to natural history of the elephant seal, with notes on other seals found at South. Southern elephant seals, M. leonina Linn., have been known to science in southern elephant seals at Macquarie Island and at other breeding sites to Until recently, elephant seals were not regarded as truly Antarctic seals and were seen as . Two were based at South Georgia, one in the 1950s when sealing was still a History and Present Status of the Northern Elephant Seal Population Immigrants steadily colonized other island and mainland sites in Baja California A note on retrieval and recognition of young in the elephant seal, Mirounga angustirostris. . Of the three (or four) main stocks, South Georgia and Peninsula Valdes Research Note. Moulting juvenile a beach, southern elephant seals spend some time changing .. Matthews, L. H. 1929: The natural history of the elephant seal with notes on other seals found at South Georgia. Discovery. An adult harp seal, caught by accident in a gill net during the peak of the seal invasions along the northern coasts of .. L. H. 1929: The natural history of the elephant seal. with notes on other seals found at South Georgia Discour? Rep. 1.