Nylah has been through a lot when it comes to love and deception. The last we heard, she was locked up in a Brooklyn basement by someone that she thought was family. Trey is trying to figure out how he is going to be a single parent while dealing with the death of Diamond. Nick just wants to keep his family together and send a message that his family is not to be fucked with; but isn't it a little late for that? In the final installment of the Deception of Love, an enemy tries to redeem themselves and people who are family turn into enemies. But the gang has to remember love is an easy emotion to mask, which is why people use The Deception of Love to try and bring you down.
