

Bear Aware, 3rd (Kestrel)

Hiking in bear country always carries a risk, but the risk can be made minuscule if hikers follow the advice given in this small, packable book. Extensively reviewed by bear experts, the book provides tips and contains the latest information on the intriguing science of bear-human interactions, including the uses and benefits of pepper spray. This guide contains advice on:

- *Hiking and camping safely in bear country
- *How to handle a close encounter with a bear
- *Food storage methods that help keep campsites bear free
- *Special precautions for hunters, anglers, mountain bikers, trail runners, and outfitters
- *Specific regulations in national parks
